TODAY'S SOLOIST

Tess Altiveros, soprano

Noted for her “enthraling” (Seattle Times) and “particularly soulful” interpretations (L.A. Times), soprano Tess Altiveros is equally at home in a wide range of repertoire from the 17th century to the 21st.

Credits include Susanna in Le Nozze di Figaro (Intermountain Opera, Kentucky Opera), Soldier in The Falling and the Rising (Seattle Opera), Angela in In Real Life (Opera Memphis), Fiordiligi in Così fan Tutte (Skylark Opera), E in O+E (Seattle Opera), Euridice/Proserpine in L'Orfeo (Pacific MusicWorks), Clorinda in Seattle

Opera's acclaimed production of The Combat, Pamina in Die Zauberflöte (Pacific Symphony), Maria in West Side Story (Central City Opera/Boulder Philharmonic), Musetta in La Bohème with Mo. Andrew Litton (Colorado Symphony), Miss Jessel in Turn of the Screw (Eugene Opera), and Elle in La Voix Humaine (Vespertine Opera).

On the concert stage, her voice has been hailed as “darker, creamy, sensuous...sprezzatura personified” (Opera Today) and “pure gold” (Opera Magazine). Engagements have ranged from the American Prize-winning world premiere of Muehleisen's Borders at Carnegie Hall to the critically acclaimed West Coast tour of Monteverdi's L'Orfeo with Grammy winning conductor Stephen Stubbs. Ms. Altiveros has been featured with the Colorado Symphony, Pacific Symphony, the Boulder Philharmonic, Portland Baroque, Early Music Vancouver, Shreveport

Symphony, San Francisco Early Music Society and the Vancouver Bach Festival.

In the 22/23 season, Ms. Altiveros brings her portrayal of Soldier in The Falling and the Rising to Des Moines Metro Opera, Arizona Opera, Intermountain Opera and Opera Memphis. She returns to her home company of Seattle Opera as Giannetta in L'Elisir d'Amore and Nana in the highly anticipated world premiere of A Thousand Splendid Suns. Concert engagements include Messiah with Boise Phil, Mozart Mass in C Minor with Seattle Pro Musica, Chants d'Auvergne with Bremerton WestSound Symphony, Mozart Requiem with Evansville Philharmonic, and her Seattle Symphony debut with the U.S. premiere of João Guilherme Ripper's Cinco Poemas de Vinicius de Moraes.

A native Seattleite, Ms. Altiveros is proud to be a regular singer for all her hometown teams, including the Seattle Mariners, OL Reign, Seattle Kraken, and the Seattle Sounders.
